

BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS.

J. WISE HAGINS, Editor and Publisher

A NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF EASTERN KENTUCKY.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Volume IV.

Jackson, Kentucky, Friday, October 14th, 1904.

Number 1.

JAP LINES ARE PIERCED

Advancing Russians Dislodge Enemy Below Mukden.

HEAVY CASUALTY LIST REPORTED

Mikado's Men Neglect to Fortify a High Hill, the Key to the Situation, and Its Seizure by the Russians Forest Evaluation — Kurukatkin's
Note Ordering the Advance.

If you want to reach the mountain trade, try an ad in the BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS.

"World's Fair" Southern Railway

SHORT LINE

4.3 Miles the Shortest

Fastest and Best to the World's Fair.

LOOK AT THE SCHEDULES:

Leave Lexington 6:30 a.m. Daily
Arrive Louisville 9:30 a.m.
Arrive St. Louis 4:30 p.m.
Solid train of Pullman sleepers; Southern Railway Standard Dining Car and vestibuled coaches through from Lexington to St. Louis without change.

Leave Lexington 7:30 p.m. Daily Arrive Louisville 10:15 p.m.
Arrive St. Louis 7:30 a.m. Daily Solid train of Pullman sleepers and solid vestibuled coaches through from Lexington to St. Louis without change.

All trains make close connection at Union Station, St. Louis with Walnut Suburban Service and Electric Cars direct to the Fair Grounds.

Round Trip Excursion Rates From Lexington:
$1.65, good returning until Dec 1st 1904.

$1.85, good returning sixty days.
$1.20, good returning fifteen days.
$1.00 will be on sale daily at the station, through excursion tickets on every Tuesday and Thursday in August and Sept.

Good returning seven days.

H. C. King, City Ticket Agent, 89 Main St., Lexington, Ky.

W. H. Morgan, Ticket Agent, Southern Depot, Lexington, Ky.

T. W. Crews, Train Pass, Agent, 89 F. Main St., Lexington, Ky.

W. H. Hungerford, Pass Agent 234 Fourth Ave., Louisville, Ky.

G. H. Allen, Ass't. Pass Agent, 89 Main St., Lexington, Ky.

Wanted!

One thousand men and women to pass the Civil Service Examination for the following United States Government positions:

NAME OF POSITION

Department Branch.

Age 18 and 20 and over

Clerk — Male or Female

Stenographer — Male or Female

Stenographer and Typewriter Male or Female

Bookkeeper — Male or Female

Railway Mail Clerk, Age 18 to 25

Tagger — 20 and over

Custom House Branch

Age 18 and 20 and over

Day Inspector

Clerk — Male or Female

Assistant Weigher

Messenger

Sampler

Internal Revenue Branch

Age 18 and 21 and over

Clerk

Gauger

Suspender

Post Office Branch

Clerk — Male or Female 18 to 45

Clerk Carrier

For information as to requirements

Address, Old No. 685, Lexington, Ky.

If you want results, advertise in the paper that has the circulation — That's us.

$18.00 Chicago to St. Paul-Minneapolis and Return

Via the North-Western Line $22.00 round trip Chicago to Superior and Duluth; $20.75 round trip Chicago to Saint Paul, tickets on sale daily.

$12.85 Chicago to Marquette and return, on Oct. 1st, 2nd and 3rd Correspondingly low rates from other points perfectly pointed, train service, through sleeping cars. The best of everything, information and tickets can be secured from your home agent, or address N. M. Steere, 486 Vine Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Girls Commit Suicides.

Kankakee, Ill., Oct. 11.—A suicide pact has resulted in the death of Miss Minnie Island, 20, and Lulu Cook, 14, daughters of farmers 20 miles south of this city. Clasped in each other's arms, the two drank the contents of an ounce bottle of strychnine. Death came before medical aid could be summoned. The reading of trashed novels is said to have led to the suicide.

IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE

Offered by the Henderson Route between Louville and St. Louis.

Commencing Sunday, June 20th, Kentucky's popular line the Henderson Route, will inaugurate a safe and fast day service between Louisville and St. Louis in each direction, and will improve the time and equipment generally of all trains between these points. Three daily trains will be operated in each direction on the following safe schedules between Louisville and St. Louis:

Leave Louisville 8:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. Arrive St. Louis 6:10 p.m. 7:20 a.m. and 8:10 p.m.

The equipment is brand new. Just run the shape of the most modern vestibule pattern and is fine as any train operating in or out of Kentucky.

The 8:30 a.m. train, through without change of cars, will be composed of Pullman Observation Parlor Cars, Free Reception Chair Cars, Dining Cars and high back seat passenger coaches.

The 9:30 a.m. train through without change of cars, will consist of Pullman Sleeping Cars, Free Reception Chair Cars and high back seat passenger coaches.

The 5:30 a.m. train will have Parlor Cars, Dining Cars and high back seat passenger coaches.

The dining cars on day trains will serve meals à la carte you pay for what you get.

All trains will leave from and arrive in the Seventh Street Union Depot, Louisville, arriving at and departing from the magnificent new Union Station, St. Louis.

Inquiring your tickets to St. Louis to points west, ask the agent for tickets via Louisville and the Henderson Route. He will have them in stock and will be glad to ticket you that way.

You will be satisfied in every respect with the accommodation and rate service that is offered by this line, which has been termed the Official Route for Kentuckians.

The new time card of the L. & A. Railroad company which went into effect July 1st will enable persons from Jackson and all points East of Bennington Junction to connect at Beattyville Junction with their morning train to Beattyville, Irvine and Richmond.

Therefore, the enemy, in operating his railroad, will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

He will be compelled to pay him for his services.

THE BREATHITT NEWS.

J. WISE HAGINS, Editor.

Friday, Oct. 14th 1904

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

J. WISE HAGINS C. X. BOWLING
HAGINS & BOWLING,
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,
Office over Post-Office,
JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

All business intrusted to them will receive prompt and careful attention.

L. C. ROARK
LAWYER,
JACKSON, KENTUCKY.
Will practice in Breathitt and Magoffin Counties.

J. W. FLEENOR A. H. PATTON
FLEENOR & PATTON
LAWYERS,
JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

JOHN D. WHITE,
Lawyer,
Office over Bank, Manchester, Clay Co., Kentucky.

Room 603, Kentucky Title Bldg.,
Lexington, Ky.

Will practice in State and U. S. Courts Invsigating evidence touching New Era Co. lands in Owsley or G. V. L. Co. lands in Harlan, or those Creek farms
for sale in Clay Co., Ky.

Upon application will investigate and report values of titles or large tracts of timber, coal and oil lands located between Madison, Monroe county, Ky., and the head of Kingdom Creek, Letcher Co., Ky.

LEETE & BETRIS
CIVIL ENGINEERS AND SURVEYORS.

Prompt Attention given to all classes of work and . . .
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
OFFICE: JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

Announcements

FOR COUNTY JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce
J. C. WHITE,
as a candidate for the office of County Judge of Breathitt county subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JAILER.

We authorized to announce REV. J.
H. HUDSON as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Breathitt county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR COUNTY COURT CLERK.
To the people of Breathitt county:
I have faithfully served you as Breathitt County Court Clerk for the last two years, and I do that I have gained your confidence, I may take pleasure in announcing myself as a candidate for the first time for life, asking you to nominate and elect me to the office.

COUNTY COURT CLERK
of your county. This is my native county, where I was born and reared.
I am a Democrat and subject to the principles of Democracy, and I elected to the office of which I believe I am deserving, it will be my highest ambition in life to make the people of Breathitt county such an officer as will be acceptable even to those who might oppose me.

Fairly asking you for your support, I am
Your friend, T. H. Hudson

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce L. C.
ROARK, as a candidate for County Attorney of Breathitt county subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The News with this issue enters its fourth year and our prediction at the outset that we thought there was room for a paper here has been more than verified, our subscription list now up to more than 1,000 before the first year was out and has been steadily increasing ever since, more than 75 having been added during the past month. We have had for the past two years the largest circulation of any paper published in this section. We are very thankful to our friends for their aid and encouragement, for to them is due in a great measure our success and prosperity while destroying the reputation of some would be prophets in this community.

We start out on our fourth year with renewed energies knowing that we have passed the experimental stage.
While we have done the best we could along we feel that with our experience and improved machinery we are justified in promising you a better period than we have given you heretofore, again thanking you for your loyal patronage in the past and hoping to merit a continuance of same we will continue to give you all the news all the time to the best of our ability.

Read about our agent guessing Contest.

Mrs. J. B. Marett and her two little children and her daughter Imogen of Winchester are visiting in Jackson this week.

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET

ON WHICH BLUE PENCIL WAS FREELY USED.

Happenings In the Various Quarters of the World Will Be Found Fully Chronicled In the Fewest Words In This Column.

TUESDAY.
Democratic committee announces William J. Bryan will make one speech in Ohio, Oct. 24.

Both houses of the Eccllesiastical general congress voted to hold the next general convention at Richmond, Va., in 1907.

Oscar Herter, 62, formerly widely known on the stage as Otto Devalle, died at his home at Philadelphia of heart disease.

Walter Kennedy, Donald Campbell and Miss Neile Gray perished in Lake Michigan, off Chicago, when their boat capsized.

Henry A. Genge, well known as an inventor of an apparatus for heating railway coaches, died at his home in New Rochelle, N. Y.

An idle rumor that the Dime Savings bank, Canton, O., lost $75,000 by the failure of the Autman company, started a run on the bank. All credit was promptly paid.

MONDAY.

Governor Odell announces he does not seek United States senatorial office.

Without triumph in revolt against the Germans in German Southwest Africa.

Matthew W. Ransom, formerly U. S.
senator from North Carolina and once American minister to Mexico, died suddenly at his residence near Garrysburg, N. C.

Samuel Weakley of Canton, O., noted minister, who was shot by Wm. H.
Patton, alias Friend, a striking youth whose place Weakley had taken, died at Cincinnati, O.

Five men were drowned in Peuseca bay by the capsizing of a sailboat in which they were returning from Tunisia to the navy yard. Victims members of the gulf coast Yacht crew.

Hannay family confirm the report that a magnificent manse will be erected in Lake View cemetery, Cleveland, wherein the bodies of the reverend and other members of the family will be interred.

SATURDAY.

Four persons lost their lives in the burning of the Tracy hotel in South
St. Joseph, Mo.

One person was killed and seven injured in a collision on the Paducah railroad near Steubenville, O.

Two men in a camp of Italian laborers near Brewster, N. Y., were killed in an attack by Italian brigands.

Peter Clouse, 71, was murdered in his home near Denmark, O., while others of the family were absent at the county fair.

The jury in the case of the Colch and three others, charged with lynching
John Small, colored, near Lynchburg, Tenn., returned a verdict of not guilty.

Charles Foley, who was hanged at New Orleans for the murder of Richard Flynn, was the last white man executed in that city for a number of years.

FRIDAY.

Mrs. Ervin Ewing Palmer, the last of the two "lost" sisters, died at Shoebridge, N. Y., aged 50.

James F. Timmons, 65, ex-sheriff of Merger county, O., committed suicide by hanging after a long illness.

Murdered grand chief of the Marshall tribe of Indians in the old Pacific, is dead after a lingering illness.

John Mitchell of the Mine Workers' union has arranged a joint conference in an effort to settle the strike in the East Tennessee coal field.

Bear Adlai Wise of the Atlantic trading squadron has recommended that the squadron spend the greater part of the winter in Pensacola, harbor and that vicinity.

Exercises in the Ohio state building, followed with an informal reception to Gov. ryan Myron T. Herrick by the Ohio state commission marked the celebration of this day at the exposition.

THURSDAY.

The Spanish Institute of social reforms decided by a vote of 13 to 8 to ratify the absolute prohibition of Sunday illuminations.

The Greek slamer Clementine, from the Black sea for Antwerp, foundered off the coast of France, and 17 of the crew were drowned.

A detachment of Portuguese troops operating in West Africa against the Cynthomas was surprised and lost 254 men in killed and wounded.

Major Metcalf of New York has removed the entire civil service commission on charges preferred by the Civil Service Reform association that illegal payrolls had been certified.

WEDNESDAY.

James Callahan, colored, was hanged at Washington, Pa., for the murder of Miss Mary also colored.

Chaffee Rigby of Toledo, O., who was injured in an automobile accident at Hicksville, L. I., is dead.

Frederick August Bartholdi, the sculptor of the statue of Liberty in New York harbor, died at his home in Paris.

Prosecution of men holding fraudulent naturalization papers is to be joined by the federal authorities in Greater New York.

Major Louis A. Seaman, United States army surgeon, says Japan is far ahead of all other nations in the sanitary branch of her army.

Go To WATT'S
Big Store

He Has Just Opened Up a Full line

Of Ladies Dres Goods, Men's Clothings. Also a full line of Boys and Youths Clothing, everything up-to-date.

You are cordially invited to inspect our line.
Call and see the Best Goods for the Prices the Lowest, Wholesale and Retail. Highest price paid for Country Produce. II Welcomes.

JOHN WATTS

JACKSON, KENTUCKY.

Correspondence.

FILLMORE.

Henry Johnson a son of Walmar Johnson, evidently shot himself in the leg by a pistol dropping from his pocket at the depot at Athol on last Saturday evening. So much for carrying concealed weapons.

October 20th there will be given a joint parade and public dinner by the L.D.C. and Daughters of Veterans at the Hall on Bear Creek. A cordial invitation is extended far and wide.

Daniel Turner and Stephen Brewster were arrested Friday for forging several checks on Uncle Mat Bowman of Athol. He went to Winchester Friday and thinks he will not lose very much.

On last Friday night quite a crowd of young people pleasantly entered at the home of Logan Chapman.
Those present were Moses Kitty Johnson, Nancy Chambers, Ada Sprouse, and Della Bowman, Alice Chapman and Sarah Sprouse; Messrs. Nick Sprouse Horace and Wm Allen, Barney Phelps, Roy Morris, Bishop Creek and Simpson, Bedford Bowman and others too numerous to mention.

Amelia Johnson a traveling evangelist is conducting a series of meetings at Wesley Chapel on Bear Creek.

Mc Pearl Hurst (nee Miss Pearl Mc-Curdy) is progressing nicely with her school at this place.

Misses Frances Johnson and Alpha Clark visited Miss Louisa Rose of Booneville last Saturday and Sunday.

Sept. 21st Eager visited schools in this locality last week.

EVERSOLE.

Wm Wilson of Meadow Creek is sick with fever.

Clay Crawford of Tellico was in this area last week buying hog fogs.
Stephen Stepp of Meadow Creek has had his farm to Wm Gibson and Ezekiel Sprouse for $2,000.

Ezekiel Sprouse recently sold his farm to Bear Run to a Harlan county man.

Among those visiting our country recently last Sunday were Mittie Nettle and Hubert Reynolds; Emma and Mollie Moore, Laura Napier, Laula
Seely, Ethel Wilson, Dillard Wilson,
Lee Gibson, Hays Estep and others.

We mourn with regret the death of Mrs. Legion Everette of Cow Creek.
She was taken very ill and did not live more than a week from the time she was taken until God called her from earth to heaven. She was a devoted wife, a kind and loving mother and leave a husband and six children besides a host of friends.

It is very dry in this part of the country, some of our people having to cover their drinking water a considerable distance.

There will be preaching at the open-air church Meadow Creek next Sunday.

TORRENT.

Mrs. W. A. Jones and little daughter Krova, spent part of last week in Jackson visiting Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ashby.

Leonard Barnes of Ridgewood June-son went to Eliz Lieck on his business last week.

Mc and Mrs. Franklin Daniels of Bald-wood Junction visited relatives in Clay
City several days last week.

John and William Jones of Ridgewood junction and L. C. Bushnell and Howard Jones of this place were the guests of Jeff Bush at Zachariah last Sunday.

William Seaton recently from the 3rd office at Jackson, as operator, is now holding down a similar position here and that vicinity.

A M Stiles of Ridgewood will return to Winchester in the near future.

Dick Blackford and daughter, Mrs.
Melissa, attended the funeral service of Daniel Stampor, deceased, which was held at Pine Hill church last Sunday.

Lee Congleton of Lexington was the last in the death of George Martin over Sunday.

Mrs. Ellen J. Proctor of Youngstown O., a member of the Soul Winners' Society who has been stationed here for the past year, left Tuesday en route for Jackson, Miss., where she will take charge of a school.

Blain Daugherty, of Salt Lick, who is working on the pipe line in this neighborhood, made a flying visit home last Saturday. He informed your correspondent that the pipe line is complete from Pumping Station on Licking River to Irvine and that the pipe lying between here and Irvine has been ditched and buried. The line will be ready for the oil in a short time.

For Sale—A house and lot in the town of Jackson, Call on Hagins & Bowling.

RAILROAD TABLES

LEXINGTON & EASTERN R.Y.

LOCAL TIME TABLE.

Effective Oct. 10th, 1904.

East Bound

No. 1 daily
Ex. Sunday
P.M. A.M.

Ly Lexington 2:25 7:45
Winchester 3:10 8:25
Clay City 3:50 9:13
Stanton 4:08 9:28
Natural Bridge 4:35 9:51
Torrent 4:40 10:08
Beattyville Jun. 5:11 10:29
O. & K. June 6:11 11:30
Ar Jackson 6:15 11:30

West Bound

No. 2 Daily
Ex. Sunday
A.M. P.M.

Ar Lexington 10:10 6:05
Winchester 9:23 5:20
Clay City 8:37 4:39
Stanton 8:28 4:30
Natural Bridge 8:51 4:51
Torrent 7:47 8:47
Beattyville Jun. 7:26 8:26
O. & K. June 8:29 2:34
Jackson 8:29 2:25

The Breathitt News.
Published Every Friday.

Local and Personal

Subscriptions today.

We guarantee a larger circulation than any other paper published in this section.

Mattings at Day Bros. Co.

Golby's Meat Market, for fresh and cured meats.

J. M. Teller, of the Campion bar, was among the visiting attorneys at court here this week.

When in Lexington, stop with Hunt Bros. Board Hotel.

Master Zachary Hurst, of Boxer, visited his cousin, Herschel Bach, at the place the past week.

FOR SALE—Two splendid muled buggies. — Wm. R. Huglin.

Attorney F. Steele, of Wolfe County, has been attending court here during the past week.

This is an all home print paper. Head both sides if you want to get all the news.

P. T. Snowden and wife, and their interesting little daughter, Madal, of Camp Christy, were visiting the family of H. C. Hurst Saturday and Sunday.

C. Kelman is paying the highest price for green and dry fiddles and all other produce.

P. L. Naylor, of Hindman and Sheep of Knott County, was in Jackson last evening on business.

Golby's Meat Market for best fresh and cured meats in Jackson. All goods delivered promptly. Phone No. 70.

Last Saturday was pay day for the teachers and quite a number were in town to get their first month's salary.

Subscribe for the Advance, a magazine of inspiration to young people $600 per year or three for $1.00.

WILLIAM PATRICK, Agent,
Jackson, Ky.

H. R. Smith, of Lost Creek, has been here for the past two weeks at the bedside of his son, Monroe Smith, who is very low with consumption.

The suit of Joann Hill, et al., vs. D. P. Clark, is concerning the house and lot where Mr. Clark lives has been decided in favor of the defendants.

A. H. Bryant of Arden was here Monday and renewed his subscription to the news.

Mrs. Carrie Hager, who has been visiting her father, Capt. A. C. Cope, or Oregon returned to her home at the news, O. T., last week.

Mort Millions, of Jeff's Creek, died last Sunday of heart trouble. He was about 40 years of age.

Miss Roberta Peters and her brother, Master number, returned to their home at this place Friday after a protracted visit to relatives at Mt. Sterling.

The many friends of S. S. Tanillee are glad to see him again after a very serious and protracted illness.

Wm. Woodhouse who has been continuing on the road Green metal for some time, passed through Jackson Saturday en route for his home at Lexington.

Miss Nellie Boyd of Mt. Sterling is visiting her cousin, a nurse, of this city.

Mrs. Dabulon Kash, of Mt. Sterling wife of the late James Kash, formerly of this county, and Mrs. Martin and daughter, Rachel, of Ex. Porte, Ind., have been visiting Mrs. Martin's father, D. D. Harst, Postmaster at this place, during the past week.

Haniel Hays, who has been visiting friends, relatives in this and Wolfe counties for the past two weeks, left last Tuesday for his home in Taylor Texas. Of course he renewed his subscription to the news in order to keep posted about affairs in his native country.

C. W. Sewell put a large number of small bats furnished by the government to the river here, and at various points below here, first of the week. They are black bats and eat fish, and let alone will soon make fish plentiful in our waters. The Government will look after their protection. Dynamiters had better look out.

Form For Sale.

50 Acres of land for sale 2½ miles from Jackson, on Lick Branch, with 40 young peach and apple trees, over 300 bushels corn, and 75 bushels Irish potatoes. For particulars apply to John E. PATRICK, Jackson, Ky.

Just Look!

500 Suits to be cleaned out at half price at O. Kelman's. Call in while at court and examine them.

Wm. Bolin and family, of Pisgah Ky., are visiting L. T. Bolin, father of Mr. Bolin, at this place.

FOR SALE—100 acres of land cheap near Lambie on main Quicksand, Ad-dress, B. H. PATRICK, Jackson, Ky.

Come and see the new mattings at Day Bros. Co.

FARM FOR SALE
10 rods and 1/2 miles south of Indian Fields, known as a part of the Indian Field. A farm, with 7 rooms, barn at the door with all the other necessary out buildings, one stock barn, one tobacco barn, sufficient to hold 4 acres of tobacco, churches and school convenient. The farm is well entered and fenced. There is a nice young orchard of something over 100 up-trees in bearing, selected fruit sold on or address me at Indian Fields Ky.

G. W. ALLEN.

One of many.

H. A. Tisdale, of Summersville, W. Va., offered for twenty years with the Pills. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of De-Witt Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many, many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine De-Witt's, made by E. P. De-Witt & Co. in Cheshire, Conn., and a cure is certain. De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of ulcers, burns, bruises, eczema, etc., ringworm, skin diseases, etc. Sold by M. S. COHN.

Sewell-Rose.

Mr. Curtis Rose and Miss Margaret Sewell, both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sewell, Friday morning, October 13th, Rev. W. Powell officiating. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding couple left on the early L. & N. train for Louisville, Cincinnati and other points. The bride is one of Jackson's fairest and most popular young ladies. The groom recently located here, coming from rural Green, his native town, to engage in the insurance business and has during his brief sojourn among us not only won many friends but has made a successful and enviable business record. The News offers congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

Can you eat?

I. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Breathitt, Testifies: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done but it did not help. Hearing of De-Supus Cure I concluded to try it. The first little bottle relieved me and after taking 4 bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodak. Dyspepsia Cure Ingots when you eat and cures. Sold by M. S. COHN, Jackson, Ky.

For Sale.

One acre residence on East Main Street, next door to J. S. Head's residence. Lot 582½ feet, pleasant location in town.

Also lot on Main Street, near court house 58x210 feet. Splendid business location. Both lots will be sold cheap or cash or its equivalent. Call on our address. S. H. PATRICK,
Jackson, Ky.

PLI Pleasure.

If you ever took De-Witt's Little Ear Blisters for biliousness or constipation you know what full pleasure is. These famous little pills release the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not grate, stricken or weaken, but pleasantly give tone and strength to the tissues and organs of the stomach liver and spleen. Sold by M. S. COHN.

Unclaimed Letters.

List of unclaimed matter advertised by D. H. Harst, Postmaster at Jackson, Ky., October 11th, 1901, and sent to the Dead Letter Office at Washington, D. C., for week ending October 28, 1901:

Bird 2 letters. Bailey Dorn,
Culney Ford, Cope Phoebe Fulz Ruth, French Martha,
Gardner Joseph, Hall Lewis,
Hesmer Jesse, Hall Med.,
Jett Hearn 2 letters, Mullins Smith,
McIntosh Minnie, Phelps C. P.
Smith 3 years, Williams Gordon,
Wilson Elsy, Wadkins Johnathan
Underwood Bella.

H. D. HARST, P. M.

A nice small farm in Lee county for sale. The Larkin Stammer place, on the head of Bear Creek. Nice dwelling, good storehouse, crib and barn, never failing water, well fenced. Price reasonable and terms easy. For particular buyers apply to SAM JETT, Whinstone, Ky.

A Defense.

Deputy T. R. Marshall, Wm. May brought Robert Neely to Jackson under arrest last of the week, charged with intimidating a young man named Morton Joseph, whom was said to be an employ of J. C. Bach, Fletcher & Co., by saying he (Neely) would have a writ of trespass served on them if they run on his tract of land of which Bach had deeds and patents. Neely claims that he was just joking the boy, as he and Mr. Joseph were well acquainted and that he met the boy five miles away from the camp while he was looking for a horse and passed a few jokes, as was common with him, but did not know that Joseph was in the service of any U. S. Marshal or any other business at the time of the conversation. He says he was arrested only by false reports from his enemy. He further denies any charges alleged against him by the corps of surveyors up there. He says they run land all the week and were not interfered with by any nor, and that he offered to go with the marshal, or send him words to that effect, and that his arrest is caused by the influence of parties who don't like him. He says that he has never interfered with any Federal business or any other per-taining to said land in controversy.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

DR. J. R. JONES.

Port Speler, James E. Delight, Sam Wadkins, G. W. Whitaker, John T. Denton, Harris Allen, L. B. Combs, A. A. Gandy, Granville Speler, Nick Brearley, Brison Fugate and Ezekiel Jett, with G. W. Whitaker foreman.

PETITE JURY.

No 1.—Alex Nodle, Solomon Frazier, Terre Nodle, Eliot Miller, James M. Johnson, Price Ingman, Thos R. Denton, Abe Griffith, Sam Frazier, Isaac Holbrook, John L. Strong and Jacob Terrell.

No 2.—French Miller, Henry Hollen, Irvin Allen, Henry Cundiff, Thomas Johnson, William Belcher, L. C. Calhoun, Alex Houston, John Anderson, N. H. Sally, W. B. Caldwell and Theo Gabbard.

The first four days of the term were taken up with the trial of misdemeanors cases, a great many of which have been disposed of. Quite a number of civil suits have also been tried.

The Substitute

By WILL N. HARBN.
Author of "Abner Daniel," "The Land of the Changing Sun," "The North Walk
Mystery," Etc.

Copyright, 1903, by HARPER & BROTHERS

[CONTINUED]

CHAPTER XXV.

"I THINK the Lord had a hand in putting me next door to Mrs. Dugan," said Mr. Hillyer to George, "to tease that evening after supper. 'When my spirits sank down to zero I go out in the yard an' give 'em a chance to come over an' talk. No; I never go over there. All I got to do is to let 'em see me; she's on me like a duck on a June bug. She'll talk yore head off, but she'll help you out of a tight whenever you give 'er the wink. Me an' her together worked Hortense so fine as spite still farther day. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond getting Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd jest escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"You are off thar," said I. "I know better than that. He's one man that don't care for women."

"Tell that to the maroons!" Mrs. Dugan sneered. Then she reced off a table she said Bob Hanek's wife told 'er about a hot Jim Kenner an' a whole posse of fathers had made that they was goin' to kiss a certain gal whether she'd like it or not. She said the gal was kindest soft, any way, an' they all got in a whack at her, but that when Jim Kenner got through with 'er she had the buckin' an' said he was the wuss she'd ever seen. I was a-watchin' Hortense out o' the corner o' my eye. She got first white an' then red, but she kept her ears open. I don't know all Mrs. Dugan didn't say, but the best thing was when she said no ordinary woman could make any impression on a man o' that stamp. I seed Hortense sorter like 'er lip an' straighten up like she was makin' a resolution. And after Mrs. Dugan had gone home she set around like she was out o' Jilt all at once. You know a woman will kinder count on a man's regard, an' feed on it an' jest drift without lookin' ahead. If she's shore o' his admiration she'd a heap o' times rather have him in art's length than to be cookin' his scrubbin' for 'im in his britches. That's what Hortense was at. She's known a few married men an' had noticed how plumb crazy they was about their wives after the honeymoon was over. But nothing ain't smooth in this world, why should married life be an exception? An' then Hortense hates to be called a old maid. Well, to cut my tale off, Hortense jest come out that evenin' an' said, 'When you see Mr. Kenner you may tell 'im I'm comin'. An' while you was out, last Thursday night they had the parlor to themselves. Me an' Mr. Hillyer sat on the front veranda. Jim Kenner hadn't no slouch. He kept 'er laughin' all evenin' at his tales, an' when she come out after bed she said he was the most agreeable man she'd ever met. Not a word's been said about marryin' betwixt 'em, but I'll talk to 'er about 'er things inside of a week, now see if I don't. Seems like lots o' Darley folks is under the wealth er here lately. Thir Lawyer Truhue, They say he's awful sick. George Buckley, I may look light hearted, but I've got a sight to trouble me. I worry about Mr. Hillyer mighty nigh con-stant."

"I suppose you do," answered Buckley, meeting her glance sympathetic ally.

"I worry about him becaus'e he hadn't open with me," she went on. "You know that's one matter that we never mention betwixt us, an' I just have to guess at how he feels in his different moods. Now, I'm bother'd over the way he's actin' about Truhue's sick ness. Why should he get excited over that? But he is. When we fast heard it he didn't seem to pay me more at tention to it than if the report had been about any other citizen, but all at once, while he was readin' the Advertiser at the lamp, he put the paper down quick an' got up n' went out side. I went to the door an' heard 'im axin' Jake how Truhue was, an' when Jake told 'im he wasn't no better he come back in the house pato an' very ova, an' last night he hardly slept at all. Do you know of any important deatlings he's had with Truhue, George?"

"No, I do not, Mrs. Hillyer," George replied. "I can't understand it."

"I sorter thought at first that it was becaus'e Jim an' Truhue is about the same age, an' I sorter kinda 'm'e're feel on the end we all have to come to. You know, George, Mr. Hillyer's great trouble has made 'im more afraid to go on to attend to the work of inspecting the books of a broker who handled considerable grain and cotton for the Darley house.

The broker, Mr. Harry Stone, was a young man of high social standing in Atlanta, and he had formed a strong friendship for George and extended the hospitality of the best club in the place to him and offered to introduce him to his friends, but George refrained from accepting. He was too close a man to feel at ease in general society so early after his father's disgrace, and Stone understood this and did not press those things upon him.

"I see you've got some stunning girls on your way," Stone remarked as George sat at a desk in the corner of his room, "checkin' up" the books. It's reported down here that our governor runs up that way every clinch o' gates."

"Yes, we are friends," George said simply. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand as a man drivin' a team o' fish upstream. Info net, I think she give everybody in Darley a slap or a dab in passin'. Finally she said it was the men that laid low an' that everybody thought was so steady that was the regular devils on the sky. 'Now, that's that long, slim shunkin' Kenner,' said she, flappin' out the sheet she was hemmin'. 'Wukks thinks he's so innocent; but, in me, he's the terriblest thit in seven states. He buys cotton all over the country an' has a gal in every town he hits.'

"Yes, I remember that," George said. "Well, Truhue is mighty low, and it was to die, George, an' explanation would have to be made. She'd have to be told that her allowance wasn't coming from the government, an' maybe he'd upbald me an' impugn his right to pay all of it back. On George, I'm awfuly misunderr'd. I want to talk to Truhue in private, but the doctor won't let a soul see 'im yet. You know, Jim Kenner's just about crazy to pay his attentions, an' she holds off an' won't let 'em set in. I made up my mind six months ago that I'd make a scratch out of that material, but beyond gettin' Jim to follow me all over creation an' her to fairly lap up all I had to say about 'her' that was as high as I come to doin' business. It puzzled me right sharp, for I knew the gal had money on her mind, an' I knew Jim Kenner was lost the thing for 'er.' Finally I dropped on to the difficulty. You know, a steady gal like Hortense, Snowdon sometimes has a regular horror of a gaudy goody-feller, an' I seed she thought he'd just escaped her! In a preacher by a harr's breathin' an' was not going with girls because he was afraid of 'em. I let Mrs. Dugan in on my racket, an' I bowed shod have a lit, she was so tickled. She got her sewin' an' come over, an' we took chitins high Hortense, an' Mrs. Dugan began. You'd 'a' thought she was on the courthouse stand swearin' in a murder case, she was so serious. She led us in to it as grand